

I'm not feeling old...

LoLA

Laboratory on Longevity and Ageing

LoLA is an Italian network of researchers from different disciplines

LoLA hosts and promotes studies and researches on demographic, social and economic causes and consequences of lengthening of life

LoLA aims to create a forum for debates and actions, as well as to propose research projects both at national and international level

Sapienza University of Rome

Dept. Statistical Sciences<sup>1</sup> and Dept. MeMoTeF<sup>2</sup>

Free University of Bozen<sup>3</sup>

Third University of Rome<sup>4</sup>

University of Padua<sup>5</sup>

University of Molise<sup>6</sup>

Catholic University of Milan<sup>7</sup>

University of Bologna<sup>8</sup>

WHO?

Socio-economic inequalities in health and health care

- Old and new vulnerable social groups
- Migration experience and health
- Social inequalities in health and wellbeing in the latest years of life
- Ageing in inner areas

Health and health services use: the challenges of the Great Recession

- Current and future impact of economic crises on health

WHAT?

The impact on labor market, welfare and pension system

- More years of life, more years of work ?
- Measures for promoting an active ageing
- The long-run impact of ageing on public expenditures

Life dimensions for healthy and happy ageing

- Life course strategies for healthy ageing
- Grandparenting and wellbeing

Dynamics of mortality at older age

- Which perspectives for longevity ?
- Underlying and multiple cause-of-death analyses to predict future evolution of mortality at older ages

For information: viviana.egidi@uniroma1.it

Website:

... At most mildly senior